

Workshops: Block #1

2:15 - 3:15 PM

Organising for Rep Power, with Rod O' Donnel (Campaigns and Community Organiser, Arts SU)

Introducing reps to the basic tools and skills of community organising and campaigning in a fun and empowering workshop format, including 1-2-1 exercises and power mapping.

Reflective Practices for Communication and Wellbeing, with Alicia Monedero-Chaves (Associate Lecturer in Academic Support, UAL)

A session exploring reflection and analysis in communication and wellbeing, utilising movement, writing and discussion to develop effective methods for collaboration and project creation.

Building Confidence in Academic Language, with Gareth Rees (Assistant Head of Language Development, UAL)

A session focused on supporting Reps with their use of academic language, writing and communication in course work and project development.

What would a university co-owned and co-run by staff and students look like?, with Amita Nijhawan (Senior Education Developer, UAL) & Kevin Biderman (Lecturer in Contextual and Theoretical Studies, LCC)

Creative and interactive session exploring how a university co-created by staff and students could reimagine education, challenge hierarchies and impact social justice.

Attendees must select their first and second preference of workshop prior to arriving; you can only participate in one workshop per-block.
