

Introducing... Your Course Reps!

A Course Rep is a student on your course who has volunteered to work with the Students' Union to represent your voice and experience of studying at UAL. They attend feedback meetings on your behalf.

You can give your Course Reps feedback about your course, including things you think are working really well and any ideas for improvements you might have.

Your Course Reps this year are: